

REBECCA GOLDBERG BIOGRAPHY

Rebecca Goldberg is a producer, DJ, live performer and designer from Detroit. Since her debut release, 313 Acid Queen, she has been affiliated with the multidisciplinary arts collective, Detroit Underground.

Rebecca is a seasoned radio DJ having mixed for FM and internet-radio shows hosted across the globe. She hosts her own monthly program, "D-SCCOVERY" on London's Aaja Radio, highlighting contemporary techno and house from Detroit.

Goldberg has self-released music and multimedia projects and her output ranges from Detroit techno to experimental/avant-garde electronic music. She has written original scores for classic films Le Voyage Dans La Lune and Gojira, including live performances at David Lynch's members-only club, Silencio, in Paris and Armageddon Beachparty in Detroit, respectively. She tours internationally as a DJ and live performer and has been featured at notable events from Movement Electronic Music Festival to Tresor in Berlin. Her latest release, BUILDINGS, is a collaboration with Italian artist and labelmate, SickBoy, released Spring 2021 via Detroit Underground.